ABSTRACT

Integrated schools bring together children and adults from Catholic, Protestant and other backgrounds in each school. The schools strive to achieve a religious balance of pupils, teachers and governors and acknowledge and respect the cultural diversity they represent. Integrated schools educate children in an environment where self-esteem and independence are developed as priorities. Self-respect and respect for others are strongly encouraged.

Introduction

Integrated education recognises the value of parents and so parental involvement in all aspects of school life is actively encouraged. Parents are encouraged to take an active role in the governance of the school and the Parent's Council. However it gives them a holistic perspective with respect to dealing with diversity or challenge negative attitudes.

REVIEWER COMMENTS

- My remarks here are concerned singularly with the association of the composition.
- Thought of these focuses will, I accept, lead to an enhanced report that better shows the key ideas and conclusions.
- Generally, this is a reasonable, brief, and elegantly composed original copy.
- The presentation is pertinent and hypothesis based.
