ABSTRACT

The present study is intended to examine the adjustment problems of school students from urban and rural schools of Kurukshetra district, Haryana. Adjustment is a process by which a living organism maintains a balance between the needs and the circumstances. The variables included for the study apart from adjustment (family, social, academic, financial and emotional) are age, gender, class, type of school etc.

Introduction

The term adjustment is often used as a synonym for accommodation and adaptation. Strictly speaking, the term denotes the results of equilibrium, which may be affected by either of these processes (Monroe, 1990). It is used to emphasize the individual's struggle to along or survive in his or her social and physical environment.

A Good Introduction :-

Importance of the expected results to the general inquiry. Extremely briefly depict the exploratory configuration and how it achieved the expressed destinations.

Materials

The sample consists of 461 students from sixth to tenth class 197 boys and 264 girls. The sample boys including 132 from Hindi medium schools and 65 from English medium schools.

Conclusion

The adjustment of school children is determined by their gender, the class in which they are studying, the medium of instruction adopted in their school, the type of management of the school and their parent's education and occupation. Differences across the children with regard to their adjustment are noted" mainly with regard to the school in which they are studying. While family adjustment is higher classes, academic adjustment, is better among children from schools that are founded by the government, and emotional adjustment is higher for students from English and privately managed schools.

A Good Conclusion :-

Thus, the research have wider scope for new academician and research scholars.

REVIEWER COMMENTS

- The writing audit was careful, the approach was carefully exhaustive and fused the utilization of sufficient quantities of tests in dust size examination and blast tests.
- I discover no shortcoming at all with the routines, information examination, or conclusions.
