ABSTRACT

The term 'Nation' symbolized to Tagore a ghastly dehumanizing mechanical organization. It was power play at its nadir. According to Tagore a 'Nation' comes into existence when moral and spiritual freedom of man is replaced by feelings of jealousy, competition and selfishness. Tagore lamented the fact that man used the forces of science to create wealth and satiate his greed. This greed for power multiplied and eventually broke the living bonds of society and gave place to a mechanical organization called 'Nation'.

Conclusion

The westerners always looked down upon the Oriental culture and condemned it as static and dogmatic, immune to new ideas. Its civilization was only metaphysics. Tagore was a pilgrim of eternity. He urged his people to break free from the shackles of matter. His vision was for the whole humanity and not a fractional group of nationality.

A Good Conclusion :-

Thus, the research have wider scope for new academician and research scholars.
