ABSTRACT

Today in the world of micro-chipera, and globalization, trade, commerce and money are decentralizing. Everyone is obtaining equal opportunity to flourish in the country. But women are still striving to get equal opportunities in several fields like education, economics, trade and business etc. in certain countries. No doubt India is one of the countries. However the scenario is changing now. The concept of Self Help Group (SHG) is a vibrant step to elevate women in India. It is evident that there are numerous problems in India related to health unemployment, population, illiteracy and deficiency of skills but it does not mean that these problems have not any solutions.
