REVIEW OF THE ARTICLE

Attitude Towards Inter-religious Harmony Among Under-graduate Students Of Southern India. (With special reference to Shimoga District in Karnataka State)

Dr. Anjanappa. B. H

ABSTRACT:

The TITLE matches with the contents of the paper India is a country of more than one billion people; the majority of people are from Hindus. However, we also have large populations of minorities, with about 150 million Muslims, making this country as the second largest Muslim population in the world, after Indonesia. There are also many millions of Christians, Sikhs, Jains and Buddhists. In recent decades, the conflict between religious communities (referred to as communalism in India) have grown substantially, and thousands of people have been killed in these religious conflicts.

INTRODUCTION:

Author introduced the topic neatly and clearly The committee has suggested regarding content that “education in moral and spiritual value should be included as a comparative and systematic study of the lives and teaching of great religious leaders and at later stage their ethical systems and philosophies should be taught. Moral values particularly refer to the conduct of man towards man in the various situations in which human beings come together in the home, in social and economic fields, and in the life of the outside world generally.
