REVIEW OF THE ARTICLE

Some Aspects Of The Feminist Legal Theory

Rohini

ABSTRACT:

The problem statement was clear and well articulated The feminist legal studies have defined the role of law for bringing social change and also discussed the complex relationship between law and women's subordination. The law should be understood as tools of social change .We are going to discuss the two major issues as the notion of rights and citizenship in this context. So that we could able to find out that how do these concepts justify the discriminating measures of laws and ignore the importance of the concept of gender difference?

INTRODUCTION:

The introduction provides a good, generalized background of the topic that quickly gives the reader an appreciation The feminist legal studies have defined the role of law for bringing social change and also discussed the complex relationship between law and women's subordination.iThe law should be understood as a tool of social change .The role of legislature and law reform could be helpful to achieve gender justice. We can understand the limitations of law and how does law play an important role to achieve gender justice by legal reforms. So, law can be place of an important symbolic value. We are going to discuss the two major issues as the notion of rights and citizenship in this context. So that we could able to find out that how do these concepts justify the discriminating measures of laws and ignore the importance of the concept of gender difference?
