REVIEW OF THE ARTICLE

An Analytical Enquiry Of Academic Achievements And Its Impact Of General Health

S. Chandran<sup>1</sup> and Dr. K. V. Jeevarathna<sup>2</sup>

ABSTRACT:

The problem statement was clear and well articulated. The social and occupational status in adulthood and the health status throughout life are largely determined by success in school and the years of schooling. Among the school children, academic success, health status, and risk behaviours, cyclically interdependent. Poor school performance is associated with health-compromising behaviours, physical, mental, and emotional problems. School performance is also compromised by poor nutrition, substance abuse, sedentary behaviour, violence, depression, and suicidal thoughts.

INTRODUCTION:

The introduction provides a good, generalized background of the topic that quickly gives the reader an appreciation. The academic achievements represent the outcome of the performance that indicates the extent to which a person accomplishes specific goals that are the focus of activities in instructional environments, specifically in school, college, and university. The school education mostly defines cognitive goals that either apply across multiple subject areas (e.g., critical thinking) or include the acquisition of knowledge and understanding in a specific intellectual domain.

METHODOLOGY:

This study was conceptual in nature. The author described a variable under study in detail. The present study is descriptive by nature. The present study is conducted on 30 high school students from ER Hr. Sec School, Trichy. The data collected through well designed questionnaire and analysed by SPSS package.

PRESENTATION OF RESULTS:

The amount of data presented was sufficient and appropriate. Tables, graphs, or figures were used judiciously and agree with the text. General health is an important issue among the adolescents and the high-school students due to their high risk of general health disorder. Therefore, conduct an appropriate counseling program, the evaluation of students' general health status is necessary.

REFERENCES:

Prior publication by the author(s) of substantial portions of the data or study was appropriately acknowledged.

RELEVANCE:

The study was relevant to the mission of the journal or its audience. The study addresses important problems or issues; the study was worth doing.
